SENSATIONAL RACING MARKS OPENING DAY AT FAMOUS LEXINGTON OVAL

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 2—Some of the most spectacular racing in its fifty years of history was witnessed at the opening day of the golden jublice meeting of Kentucky trotting horse breeders association this afternoon. The feature event, the Walnut Hall cup went to Sanford Small's four-treat-old coit. The Great Volo, the three-heats being the fastest even trotted in the event and the third heat equalling the record for the event set by Anta Guy in 1218.

Peter the Brewer in a hot stretch drive landed the first heat from Czar Worthy in impressive style, but Cox changed his factics with the Great Volb in the second and third heats coming from behind in well-timed drives and landed the brother to Peter Volo and Volga in front. Czar Worthy was not prominent after the first heat.

Frank H. Ellis' fully, Jan Revere, with the local trainer Ben White as pliot, won the thirty first renewal of the two year old division of the Kenlucky futurity.

Volga's time on that occasion was 2:07 3-4, equalling the then world's record for two year old trotting fil-lies This is the first instance where a daughter of a Kentucky futurity winner also has won the historic ev-ent.

W. B. Dickerman's Finvarra was a rather easy winner in the 2:15 trot which opened the meeting. Plain Mac which opened the meeting. Flain Mac from the Murphy stable was the fatorite, but the brother of Escotlilo was not to be denied. Todd Hart trotted a peed race, the others never being prominent. The closing event went to the Comet driven by Henry Thomes, the finishes being close in each heat and the time 2:03 1-2 and 2:03 1-4 fast for this class of horses. Summaries
